Job Summary

Speech Pathologist and Audiologist Series GS-665

Job summary Speech Pathology and Audiology positions involve professional work in the study and/or treatment of human communications disorders, as reflected in impaired hearing, voice, language, or speech.

Education Speech Pathologist – Master's degree with 18 semester hours in the field. For Audiologist –Master's degree that include 18 semester hours in the field of audiology with approved clinical practice.

Licenses or Certificates None

Source: Office of Personnel Management (opm.gov)