

Military kids are unique in so many great ways. Get to know the people around you with this military kid icebreaker dice activity!

First, write your own ice breakers on each square. Then cut along the dotted lines, and fold along the solid lines. Once folded, toss the dice and take turns answering the questions!

