

Job Summary

Therapeutic Radiologic Technologist GS-648

Job summary Therapeutic Radiologic Technologist series covers positions that involve supervision or performance of technical work that is subordinate to the work of radiotherapists or other professional or scientific personnel that involves the operation of ionizing radiation equipment and sealed radiation sources as part of a therapeutic treatment plan for patients.

Education Must (1) have successfully completed an educational program that meets or exceeds the standards described in Public Law 97-35, and is accredited by an organization recognized by the Department of Education.

Licenses or Certificates Be certified as radiographers in their field. Licensure requirements vary depending on if hired before or after 1/13/1986. Refer to OPM

Source: Office of Personnel Management (opm.gov)