c. Describe the purpose of this DoD information system or electronic collection and describe the types of personal information about individuals collected in the system.

The Military Health Systems (MHS) Information Platform (MIP) is a system containing multiple dashboards and databases that deliver enterprise clinical data capabilities. The capabilities provided by MIP are: Program Management; Data Warehousing; Application Portal; Infrastructure and Operations; Application Support; Business Intelligence; Analytics; Predictive Analytics; Legacy Data Consolidation Service; Defense Medical Surveillance System; and Corporate Executive Information System. Types of projects enabled by MIP include clinical dashboards, reports, data feeds, ad-hoc data requests, a data mart, medical history tracking of individual service members, and identification of service members at elevated risk of injury or mental health illness.

MIP servers contain and process military medical data for use in data analysis and patient care. They deliver information to aid decision makers both at the military treatment facility level and at the enterprise management level. This capability subsequently provides an enhanced level of care for the Department of Defense; as well as other authorized individuals seeking medical treatment and interaction within the Military Health System. As a component of the MIP enclave, the Department of Defense and Department of Veterans Affairs Infrastructure for Clinical Intelligence (DAVINCI) is included in the enclave's Authority to Operate (ATO) and contains a subset of data from the enclave and VA's Corporate Data Warehouse (CDW). DAVINCI combines data from a population subset of data already stored in the MIP and connects to the VA's CDW (SORN 172VA10A7; August 25, 2020, 85 FR 52415).

Organizational Incident Operational Nexus (ORION) is one of the dashboards built into MIP used to track active duty Navy and Marine Corps service members who are exposed to traumatic events. ORION helps identify and track service members who are at an elevated risk for mental health injury so that ORION Outreach Coordinators can reach out to these service members with the goal of connecting them to mental health services, if desired. Service member contact information, medical history, major life stressors, and demographic information is used by ORION Outreach Coordinators to identify and contact service members who are higher risk, and by the ORION dashboard for predictive analysis.

The types of personal information about individuals contained in these systems include personally identifiable information (PII) and protected health information (PHI) such as name, date of birth, gender, Armed Forces Qualification Test (AFQT) score, work history, Unit Identification Code, contact information, medical history and diagnoses, social supports, major life stressors, social security number (SSN), and other unique identifiers. Some information that includes PII will be coming directly from the patient.

The category of individuals includes anyone seen for treatment in any military treatment facility to include all Department of Defense active duty military, dependents, retirees, and retirees dependents. There may also be rare instances of others included if, for example if they were treated for emergent care in a military treatment facility.

The owner and manager of MIP is the Program Executive Office Defense Healthcare Management Systems (PEO DHMS), Enterprise Intelligence and Data Solutions Program Management Office (EIDS PMO).
d. Why is the PII collected and/or what is the intended use of the PII? (e.g., verification, identification, authentication, data matching, mission-related use, administrative use)

PII is collected for verification and identification of beneficiaries of DHA. This PII is for mission-related use and must be collected in order to deliver MIP's analytics capabilities to MIP users.

e. Do individuals have the opportunity to object to the collection of their PII?  Yes  No

(1) If "Yes," describe the method by which individuals can object to the collection of PII.

(2) If "No," state the reason why individuals cannot object to the collection of PII.

The opportunity for individuals to object to the collection of PII is specific to the method used to collect PII in the respective information system and is addressed in the respective system's PIA. Additionally, during the MIP log in screen, patients have the opportunity to object to the collection of PII, by agreeing or disagreeing with disclosure statement.

f. Do individuals have the opportunity to consent to the specific uses of their PII?  Yes  No

(1) If "Yes," describe the method by which individuals can give or withhold their consent.

(2) If "No," state the reason why individuals cannot give or withhold their consent.

The opportunity for individuals to consent to uses of PII is specific to the method used by the respective information system and is addressed in the respective system's PIA. Additionally, during the MIP log in screen, patients have the opportunity to consent to the specific use of PII, by agreeing or disagreeing with disclosure statement.

g. When an individual is asked to provide PII, a Privacy Act Statement (PAS) and/or a Privacy Advisory must be provided. (Check as appropriate and provide the actual wording.)

m. What is the authority to collect information? A Federal law or Executive Order must authorize the collection and maintenance of a system of records. For PII not collected or maintained in a system of records, the collection or maintenance of the PII must be necessary to discharge the requirements of a statute or Executive Order.

- (1) If this system has a Privacy Act SORN, the authorities in this PIA and the existing Privacy Act SORN should be similar.
- (2) If a SORN does not apply, cite the authority for this DoD information system or electronic collection to collect, use, maintain and/or disseminate PII. (If multiple authorities are cited, provide all that apply).

(a) Cite the specific provisions of the statute and/or EO that authorizes the operation of the system and the collection of PII.

(b) If direct statutory authority or an Executive Order does not exist, indirect statutory authority may be cited if the authority requires the operation or administration of a program, the execution of which will require the collection and maintenance of a system of records.

(c) If direct or indirect authority does not exist, DoD Components can use their general statutory grants of authority ("internal housekeeping") as the primary authority. The requirement, directive, or instruction implementing the statute within the DoD Component must be identified.
