DMVL Athens Login

The Defense Medical Virtual Library (DMVL) uses the Athens identity authentication system.

To access our resources ALWAYS login to the DMVL portal www.health.mil/dmvl using your DMVL ID/Password

If prompted to login after selecting a resource, always look for the "Athens" or "Open Athens" login option. (use your DMVL ID/Password)

If it isn't the main login, it is typically places either in the upper right hand corner or below the database vendor's login.

If you try logging in and you are not in an Athens login, your login will be unsuccessful.
