

Borden Institute and Textbooks of Military Medicine

Books published by the Borden Institute are available on the Defense Medical Virtual Library (DMVL) at www.health.mil/dmvl.

The Borden Institute publishes the Textbooks of Military Medicine series. The volumes in the series constitute a comprehensive treatise on the art and science of military medicine, covering such diverse topics as biological and chemical warfare, military preventive medicine, military medical ethics, combat behavioral health, harsh environments, and care of combat injuries.

The institute also publishes specialty titles, such as War Surgery in Afghanistan and Iraq: A Series of Cases, 2003-2007 and Emergency War Surgery, 4th ed. (2013).

The Borden Institute also publishes a series on military medical history, which includes such titles as A Contemporary History of the US Army Nurse Corps and Attack on the Pentagon: The Medical Response to 9/11.
